Program.

*“No pent up Utica contracts our Powers:
The whole boundless universe is ours.”*

CATHOLIC HISTORICAL
AND
MISCELLANEOUS SUBJECTS.

“Literature teaches us to value at its right worth ‘The World of Appearance,’ to know that there is a life within a life that every man lives.”

*“Tis now, when Earth with careful hand
Has hoarded all her gold,
The robbers come a mighty band,
To tear it from her hold.
Yet look upon her face and see
It shows no grief or care,
But beams with love and sympathy,
And smiles, not tears, are there.”*

KATHERINE GLUTTING

*“The corn is carried, the daylight wanes,
The stripling breeze to a wind is grown,
There is hardly a rose on the bush remains;
The Summers birds to the south are flown,
And scarlet, crimson, and shades of brown,
Are now ‘the fashion’ in Leafy Town.”*

*“We may live without poetry, music and art;
We may live without conscience, and live without heart;
We may live without friends; we may live without books;
But civilized man cannot live without cooks.
He may live without books,—what is knowledge but grieving?
He may live without hope,—what is hope but deceiving?
He may live without love,—what is passion but pining?
But where is the man that can live without dining?”*

*“Winter still I see
Many charms in thee;
Love thy chilly greeting,
Snowstorms fiercely bleating,
And the dear delights
Of the long, long nights.”*
